Quartette at Osgood Memorial. The Ne 7 Lyndon Day, speaking of the concert at Mystic given by the quartette of the Second church, New London, on Tunday, says: "Every number of the programme was pleasing and well selected, and seldom has an audience had the pleasure of hearing better singing. Mrs. Merrill's clear, brilliant soprano was especially pleasing, and no less can be said of Mrs. Munger, who sings with a sweetly symmetric street at Munger, who sings with a sweetly symmetric street. Munger, who sings with a sweetly symthetic voice of wide range and fine expression. It was more of a pleasure than ever to hear Mr. Seamans again as his voice had gained greatly in style and clearness of tone. Mr. Learned's true tenor was a delight, and his singing was sympathetic and masterly. The duet and quartette singing were full of sweet harmony and well bal-

Hear this quartette at the Osgood Memorial Friday evening at 8 o'clock. HIGH CLASS BILL AT THE AUDI-TORIUM,

The vaudeville part of the entertaining programme at Norwich's most pop-ular playhouse the first part of this week is causing much favorable comment, and every act is a winner. The comedy boxing turn introduced by Ed and Rolla White is a scream throughout, and something entirely different from anything ever put on a Norwich vaudeville stage. Mr. White, who is an old time boxer, shows to advantage many different leads and guards, and several of the famous knockout blows. The Cabby and the Girl, presented by The Cabby and the Girl, presented by Roudolph and Lockhart, is a neat little winging eketch introducing very pretty songs and many beautiful costume changes. Billy Beverly, the rapid-fire monologuist, is well named. He certainly puts a lot of good stuff over at short notice, and you have to keep awake to get it all. His dancing is very clever. A very pretty musical comedy offering is that of Akon and Arits, which consists of bits taken from the latest musical combby successes, which always always win favor. cesses, which always always win favor. The Photoplays are excellent the first half of the week.

POLI'S STOCK CO.

The Poll Players, the dramatic or-genization that opens at Poll's theater next Monday, has caught on with the public already, there can be no quespublic aiready, there can be no question about that. Aiready many seats have been bought and paid for at the box office for the opening nights and many reservations have been received by theater parties who will attend the first night after dinner parties than first night after dinner parties than have already been arranged. This is proof that cannot be misunderstood of the interest that the public is taking in the idea. It is the intention of the management to make the opening night a real "first night" and the indications are that it will be an unconsided success.

any is now in rehearsa for the opening play, "The Lion and the Mouse," under the direction of Henry Sedley, who has directed many of the foremost stock companies in America. Mr. Sedley's reputation is equal to that of any stock director before the public today, and the man-agement is confident that the local public will admit this unreservedly after the first performance. Seats are now selling and should be engaged early for the opening night.

AT POLI'S.

Never before has there appeared at Poll's theater a bill that his attracted the comment as the one now playing. Tonight is the last night for this popular bill and tomorrow will see an entire change of programme. Every number on the bill comes in for its share of praise and several of them have made exceptional hits. Chartes L. Gill & Co. are presenting the strongest and most impressive dramatic sketch that has ever played the city. At every performance the auditic sketch that has ever played the city. At every performance the audience is held in close attention throughout and at the close several curtain calls are always taken. Miss Isabelle D'Armond and George Moore have a most delightful and spirited act of singing, dancing and sprightly comedq. Suilivan and Pasquelena have scored at every performance in their salngy satire, "A. C. O. D. Package." The Booth trio are bicyclists of unusual cleverness and the comedian is as funny as they make them. Miss Jeanette Germain displays a voice of remarkable range of sweetness in several selections of the better class. The Kawana Brothers show extreme skill in balancing and juggling. Good pictures on the Electrograph complete the bill. This afternoon or tonight will be the last opportunity to see this will be the last opportunity to see this

BREED THEATER.

The Mountain Wife, the powerful story of the mountains of Tennessee, dealing with "moonshine" life in that section, is one of the big picture at-tractions at the Breed this week, and because of the many intensely thrilling and yet natural moments it is creating and yet natural moments it is creating a great deal of interest among the lovers of high grade and perfect picture-dramas. It is so perfectly natural that the audience is slow to realize that fully 1200 feet of film has been projected to correctly present it.

The Biograph film is a gem, and the splendid songs, I'm Looking for a Dear Old Lady, Just for a Dear Little Girl, and Golden Hearted Daisies, win much appraisance.

Shark steak is reported to be coming a popular dish in Boston. The meet is like that of swordfish and halfbut in texture but is coarser grained and its color is red. A mackerel shark was put on sale as an experiment by a Cornhill dealer some weeks ago, with the result that shark steak is having a considerable sale at 12 or 12 1-2 cents a pound.

FOLTRY.

FORGIVEN. I used to hate Bill Hazelton, for once
he done me wrong;
And when I hate a man, my hate is deep and wide and strong.
We traded horses years ago; the one
I got from him
It exemed was crippled up somewhere
in almost every limb;
He Med like sixty, and I vowed some time I'd break his head;
But—well, let bygones be bygones—
his little boy is dead.

I used to love the girl he got. I guess
she loved me, too;
But he went tellin' her a lot of things
that wasn't true.
I found it out long afterward, when I
had ceased to care,
Because I'd learned to love again—but still it wasn't fair.
And so I yowed to make him eat the
words that he had said;
But—well, let bygones be bygones—
his little boy is dead.

Last night I met him in the road, it was a lonely place.
Lord, how I'd often wished that I could meet him face to face!
I know that in a stand-up fight he'd have no chance at all—
I'm six feet in my socks, and he scrawny-like and small.
He looked up at me when we met: I seen his eyes were red.
And—well let bygones be bygones—his little boy is dead.

Twe found out what it is to love a smile that is your own—
To have a little chap around that werships you alone.

I've found out what it means to watch a little face grow pale,
And I know what it means when all the doctor's efforts fail.

Poor Bill! I'm sorry now because of certain things I've said;
For—well, let bygones be bygones—his little boy is dead.

MUCH IN LITTLE

Consul General E. D. Winslow writes from Stockholm that a large Swedish firm has lately made sales of its tur-bines in various places in Canada, Japan and Brazil. Its deliveries in 1908 aggregated 278,066 horse power.

In attempting to establish an ostricia farm in Abyssinia the original idea was to capture live ostriches and breed them. This did not prove successful, as the birds nearly always died after the pursuit necessary to get them. On the railroads of the United States there are 100,000 engines, carrying millions of cars and hauling 2,000,000.

000 tons of freight. This practically equals all the tonnage carried by all the railroads and ships of the rest of the world. Consul General S. S. Knabenshue learns at Tienstin that the only foreign music the Chinese masses have ever shown any interest in is the skirling of the bagpipes of the Cameron Highlanders, when they were in garrison there a couple years ago.

The most notable monuments in Elmwood cemetery, Memphis, were erected in honor of Mattie Stephenson and Emily Sutton, who opened their doors to homeless victims of yellow fever in 1872 and nursed them until they both succumbed to the disease.

The Longfellow home in Portland, Me., is a popular place of interest for visitors to the north country. Up to Oct. 1 the register shows that 3,678 entered the house this year, making a grand total since the opening in 1901 of 72,937 paid admissions.—Lewiston (Me.) Journal.
